WE HAVE THE EXPERTISE
YOU NEED

During these uncertain times, it is in the best interest of corporations, non-profits, and associations to prepare for disaster of any kind. Consider incorporating this special topic of disaster preparedness, response, and recovery during your virtual conferences and staff meetings. What are you doing for National Preparedness Month to help people know why it's important to prepare for disasters? Is your organization ready? Are your members ready?

Kevin Peach

CHEIF OPERATING OFFICER AT YOUR SERVICE

Kevin Peach is the Chief Operating Office (COO) at Disaster Services Corporation SVDP-USA, recognized for his ability to create public-private partnerships to drive cross-sector collaboration. He has served in various capacities to advise the United Nations (UN), the Executive Office of the President (White House), the National Security Council (NSC), Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), National Emergency Management Association (NEMA), and private industry. Kevin's background is in emergency management, leading programs that address preparedness, protection, security, response, recovery and mitigation. Having served in various capacities for various local, state, federal, and international agencies, Kevin possesses extensive and diverse professional experience managing multilateral disaster responses, government organizations, complex disaster projects and emergency management programs. He has experience managing emergency field response activities, and the formulation and development of policies addressing the mobilization of resources during emergencies, the preparation of emergency plans, and the coordination of emergency operations. He possesses comprehensive knowledge of the principles, practices and organizations that affect emergency management activities in the United States and internationally. Has a proven ability to exercise leadership and manage a diverse and complex organization to protect the Nation from all hazards, including natural disasters, terrorism, and other man-made disasters through a risk-based, comprehensive emergency management system of preparedness, protection, security, response, recovery, and mitigation.

Response, Recovery, Mitigation

COVID19 has made all of us shift how we communicate with others. What are you doing for National Preparedness Month? Are you providing your members the tools necessary to prepare for disasters?
